Navy Day — and a Greek Oracle

This is Navy Day. The United States left its observance in other years to small patriotic groups and the Navy lobby—but the whole nation thinks of the fleet this day in 1941. And now is an appropriate time to discuss the role that naval power has played in the life of nations down through history.

Roosevelt to Address Nation Monday Night

Will Probably Discuss Coal Strike in Navy Day Address

WASHINGTON —(AP)— President Roosevelt made no engagements except his usual Monday conference with legislative leaders Monday so he could finish a speech for tonight's navy day dinner—a speech which is expected to be significant in fields of international affairs and national defense.

The entire nation joined, Monday in observance of a day set aside to honor ships and men of the fleet. Vessels in port donned full dress signal pennant but for those churning the waters of the Atlantic and the Pacific, it was the battle dress as usual. Roosevelt in his first talk on international affairs in 6 weeks is expected to stress not only how the war affects America but also domestic problems such as defense strike. It was believed he would mention the coal mine strike, and also may stress the progress of the navy in keeping the sea lanes clear of hostile craft. He will deliver his address shortly after 9 p. m. CST.

Housing Short Here, Texarkana

'Tremendous Shortage' Cited By Housing Chief

LITTLE ROCK —(AP)— Texarkana and Hope have reported a "tremendous shortage" in housing facilities as result of defense projects nearby. W. S. Daniel, state federal housing authority administrator, said Saturday night.

Daniel said a shortage may be expected at Pine Bluff when construction of an incendiary bomb plant starts there and that Little Rock would feel the full impact of need for additional housing next spring when imported workers for the Jacksonville and Marsh projects begin to locate here.

Daniel said builders at Texarkana had promised to construct 750 housing units there by next April 1, providing materials and financing can be obtained under the national housing act.

Local Shooters Get 3 Out of 6 Camden Trophies

Hempstead county shooters came back home with three out of six trophies, at the state-wide shoot held Sunday at the Camden Skeet club. Jim Wilson of Columbus and Bud Price of Garland City tied for the grand prize with 99 out of 100, but the shoot-off Price broke 49 out of 50, to Wilson's 48. Wilson got the runner-up trophy.

Charles Wilson, Columbus, won the Class B trophy, and Leo Robins, Hope, the Class C trophy.

Mrs. Bud Price, of Garland City, won the ladies trophy.

Lt. James W. Branch Ends Army Schooling

First Lieut. James W. Branch, Medical Corps, Hope, was graduated Saturday from the Medical Field Service School at Carlisle, Pa., according to an Army news release to The Star. Among the guests attending the Army medical course was First Lieut. Abelardo Lobo of the Medical Corps of the Brazilian Army.

1942 Arkansas Auto Tags Go on Sale Nov. 1

Drivers Should Turn in 1941 Aluminum Plates; Caution for Visitors

Arkansas' 1942 automobile license tags will go on sale at the state revenue local office in the courthouse this coming Saturday, November 1. L. L. Pilkinton, in charge of the office, announced Monday.

Automobile owners who acquired their 1941 licenses before the end of summer obtained aluminum plates. Mr. Pilkinton pointed out, and they are asked to turn in these aluminum plates when buying 1942 tags, in the interest of National Defense. Persons buying very late 1941 tags found they were made of steel instead of aluminum, and these plates need not be turned in.

Mr. Pilkinton issued the following caution to all persons applying for 1942 tags: "The Motor Vehicle Division of the State Revenue Department has completed preparations for beginning sale of 1942 State License tags next Saturday, November 1. Persons who recently bought automobiles or moved into the state with their cars must buy last-quarter license for 1941, before they can obtain the 1942 tags. "Since the tags are not effective until January 1, 1942 none will be sold unless a 1941 license has been paid.

"You must have: 'Name of car. Motor number. 1941 tag number. "Driver's license number."

Starts Debate on Ship Arming

Senate Leaders Say Measure Will Pass in 2 Weeks

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Saying that American merchant ships are being sunk by "brutal and murderous doctrine of unrestricted submarine warfare" Senator Connally told the senate Monday that as a "proud nation the U. S. must claim a right to the seas."

Before crowded galleries of Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee opened the debate on legislation to permit the arming of merchant ships and also to permit them to go anywhere.

Ship arming is now forbidden by the neutrality law which also prevents them from entering belligerent zones and combat areas.

Democratic leaders who discussed the measure with Roosevelt said they told the President that the bill would probably pass in less than two weeks. "This resolution is a defense measure and not a war measure," Connally said, "the stronger we are the less chance there will be for a successful attack being made against us."

"We will also increase our strength by protecting our materials on the high seas and delivering defense materials."

The senate received a statement from Secretary of State Hull saying "we won't be in any war until Hitler declares we shall."

Hull testified that the U. S. had not the purpose nor intent to rush out and get into a real war but was pursuing a course dictated by self defense.

Wastage In normal times, usable fuel to the extent of 320,000 tons is thrown into London's dustbins every year. It is estimated to be worth $800,000, but it costs $1,450,000 to destroy it.

The United States uses about one-half of the world's output of tin.

Russian-Jap Clash Reported in Manchukuo

Far East Crisis Heightens as Nazis Advance on Moscow Front

By the Associated Press With Adolf Hitler's armies pounding at Moscow's gates and Rostov in the west the Russians announced Monday that a small Japanese patrol attacked a guard post on the Far East frontier.

This clash like many in the past may have been merely an isolated incident but against the background of troops concentrations in Manchukuo and growing question of Japan's intention as an Axis partner it bulked larger in its implications.

The Russian-Japanese frontier skirmish occurred last Thursday according to Tass, Russian news agency, whose dispatch from Vladivostok said that 20 Japanese soldiers attacked frontier guards near the village of Raskino.

Japs Leave Arms Tass said there were some wounded on both sides and that the Japanese had abandoned some of their arms and ammunition on Soviet soil.

Russia's immediate vital concern, on Moscow on the central front and however, still was the German drive Rostov, gateway to the Caucasus.

The harried Red army was reported to have yielded ground to strong defenses still barred the Germans from their goal.

The German communiqué said Russian counter attacks designed to halt the Nazi drive on Rostov and the industrial rich Donets basin failed and gave their Italian comrades the major credit.

"The enemy was thrown back with heavy and bloody casualties and left several hundred prisoners in the hands of our allies," the Germans said. As for other operations including the Moscow drive Hitler's headquarters had only this to say:

"Operations are making further progress in spite of severe weather conditions."

Dispatches from the central front indicated the Germans had smashed their way nearer to Moscow on a broad sector.

Attack Beaten off Russian dispatches said a mass attack by 100 German tanks had been beaten off before Rostov but that the Germans continued to bring up reinforcements in their drive toward Rostov and along the approaches to the Crimea.

A news press estimate from Kuibyshev, seat of part of the government on the Volga, put the German dead and wounded at 3,500,000 men apart from the huge toll in armaments. The Moscow radio said the Red airforce destroyed 500 German planes on the ground alone in the week of October 11-18.

"The enemy is still powerful but does not have the possibilities for considerably reinforcements while we have," said the Kuibyshev newspaper. The Russian high command as usual was brief in its reports.

Claim Miners Remaining Idle

Leader Lewis Expected to Answer President Monday

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The United Mine Workers claimed Monday that practically all of the 53,000 coal miners remained idle in answer to a strike order of John L. Lewis despite the second appeal by President Roosevelt that the miners stick to their jobs.

K. G. Adams said Lewis would reply Monday afternoon to Roosevelt's second request that the mines continue operation in the interest of defense. Adams said that all the

Six Dead at Dardanelle and 12 at Hamburg

More Than 200 Injured by Tornado; Huge Property Damage

LITTLE ROCK —(AP)— Tornadoes struck in two widely separated rural sections of Arkansas Sunday night leaving 18 known dead and scores of injured and much property damage. The twister swept into the southeast Arkansas town of Hamburg shortly before midnight killing 12 persons and injuring at least 200.

Some 6 hours earlier another twister roared along the Arkansas river valley near Dardanelle killing 6 and injuring at least 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Jordan and baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulius Walker and son Clayton, 21.

Mrs. Vester Austin, 40.

Mrs. Charlie Kelly.

Mrs. Tom Collins.

Travis Sawyer and his three year old son.

A negro named Robinson.

Those dead in the Dardanelle area were:

Mrs. Bill Price of Bethel.

Mrs. Otis Heatcoat of Bethel, daughter of Mrs. Price.

Mrs. Alfred McDonald of Okadoak.

Minnie Bruton, and her 2-months old daughter and 4 year old son.

At Hamburg rescue workers hampered by rain and power failure labored in darkness throughout the night searching for dead and injured. Doctors converted a hotel into an emergency hospital furnishing beds for 25 seriously injured and giving first aid to many. Others were taken to hospitals at nearby Monticello and Cross-tit.

Soldiers Police Town

Assisting were between 30 and 40 Camp Livingston soldiers who were en route to Louisiana after a furlough and whose chartered bus passed bus passed through Hamburg shortly after the storm.

The soldiers ordered the bus to stop and took over police duties. Their first act was to throw police lines around the town where the tornado wrecked three large oil storage tanks, causing gasoline to flow in the streets.

It was feared that a dropped match or a lighted cigarette would add danger to the storm hazard.

The tornado missed the business section of Hamburg by a few blocks, dealing its full blast at residential sections where most of the citizens were asleep.

Many citizens spent the hours until dawn clad in nightclothes, unable to find belongings in the confusion.

A negro district was particularly had hit.

Heavy Property Damage

Dardanelle, a county seat if 2,000 persons, received a heavy property damage in the residential section. All communication lines were down in Dardanelle area and two medical units of the 134th infantry were sent from Camp Robinson, near Little Rock, to assist in caring for victims.

The twister struck at Chicalah, 5 miles west of Dardanelle, ripping through Dardanelle's outskirts, crossed the Arkansas river and battered at Okadoak, Bethel and Pottsville.

Small Damage Here

Transient rains accompanied by high winds caused little damage in this section Sunday night. Outside of three plate glass windows broken downtown, several trees uprooted and streets filled with pieces of limbs, no serious damage was reported.

The University of Arkansas Experiment station weather department reported that 61 inches of rain fell during the night, showing the mercury down to 56 degrees at 7 o'clock Monday morning. The coldest day recorded recently was October 10 when the mercury went to 44 degrees.

Windows at the Hope Auto Co., Hope Creamery and a vacant building on East Second street and at the B. R. Hamm Motor Co. were shattered by strong winds. Several large limbs were blown into the streets and against houses. However little damage was reported.

From the rural section came reports of uprooted trees but the damage there also was believed slight.

Senator Spencer in Hope for This Week

Senator Lloyd Spencer arrived in Hope over the week-end from Washington and plans to remain here all this week.

Answer to Cranium Crackers

Questions on Page One

1. First rule of first aid is "call the doctor."
2. Treat burns with tannic acid burn jelly, or fresh tannic acid, 5 per cent solution, or paste solution of baking soda on clean gauze, or a good burn ointment in the case of slight burns.
3. To stop arterial bleeding, use pressure with fingers or hand at pressure points (1) in front of ear for temple bleeding; (2) inner arm between shoulder and elbow for hand or arm; (3) in groin against pelvis bone for foot, thigh or leg; (4) on neck, fingers forward just touching windpipe, thumb around back of neck for cut throat; (5) behind collarbone at side of neck, pressing downward on first rib, for shoulder or arm pit. Touriquet, applied between bleeding and heart, and loosened every 15 minutes, also curbs bleeding.
4. For fainting, place patient on back, with head low, feet raised. Loosen tight clothing, give plenty of air, applying smelling salts, ammonia on a handkerchief, or little cold water in face.

Series of Parties Fete California Visitor

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Don Ligon of Houston, Texas entertained at bridge at the home of her sister, Mrs. Robert Wilson, as special compliment to Mrs. Herbert Huntington of Los Angeles, California, a popular visitor in the city.

Artistic arrangements of roses were noted at vantage points throughout the reception rooms, where spirited games of contract were enjoyed.

Following the games the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Wilson, served a delicious salad course to the guests. The honoree was presented with a dainty gift.

Mrs. B. C. Hyatt was hostess at a luncheon Saturday honoring Mrs. Huntington, who will be remembered as Emma Mai Wilson and a member of the Hyatt-Spragins bridal party.

Other guests for the luncheon were Mrs. May Wilson, Mrs. Robert L. Grone, Jr., Mrs. Robert Wilson, and Mrs. H. M. Daniel of Kalamazoo, Michigan.

The hostess was assisted in dispensing hospitality by her mother, Mrs. C. C. Spragins.

Friday Music Club Members Have Meeting Before District Conference

Choral club practice was held at the home of the president of the Friday Music club, Mrs. Hendrix Spragins, Friday afternoon preceding the regular meeting of the club.

Following the regular business meeting, plans were made to attend the Southwestern District meeting of Federated Music clubs held at Camden Saturday.

Among the Hope club members attending were Mrs. Hendrix Spragins, Mrs. J. C. Carlton, Mrs. Henry Haynes, Mrs. Jim McKenzie, Mrs. Basil Edwards, and Mrs. Kenneth Spore.

Mrs. Carlton was elected district president of the federated Music clubs succeeding Mrs. E. E. Williams, Texarkana.

Mrs. H. P. Connell Is Desert-Bridge Hostess Saturday

A lovely party of Saturday was the desert-bridge given by Mrs. H. P. Connell at her home at 1 o'clock.

Two tables were arranged for bridge in the reception rooms, which were decorated with beautiful autumnal flowers.

Courses of pom-pom astors marked the covers of Mrs. J. W. Reed of Dickinson, North Dakota, and Miss Margaret Richardson of Houston, Texas.

The Halloween motif was carried out in the delicious desert course served the guests preceding the games and in the decorations and appointments.

For making the highest score, Mrs. K. C. Richardson of Prescott received a handsome gift.

Miss Haynes Announces Wedding Personnel Today

Invitations have been issued to the wedding of Miss Mary Ann Haynes, only daughter of Mrs. Charles A. Haynes, and Richard Macy Thompson of Indianapolis, which will be solemnized in a home ceremony Saturday evening, November 8th, with the Reverend Harry Wintermyer, officiating.

The bride-elect will be given in marriage by her brother, Charles A. Haynes. Her chosen attendants are Miss Katherine Peters of Winfield, Louisiana, maid of honor, and Mrs. William F. Willson of Indianapolis, sister of the bridegroom-elect, matron of honor.

The bridesmaids will be Miss Jacque Martine of Beverly Hills, California; Miss Mary Perry of Greenville, South Carolina; Miss Sue Rucker, also of Greenville; and Mrs. Thomas Milburn Purvis.

Little Miss Roberta Howard, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Howard, will be junior bridesmaid, and little Miss Ginnane Graves, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Albert Graves, will be the flower girl.

H. Burke Weigle of New York will serve as best man, while the ushers will be Charles Armitage of Boston; Harrison Faith of Indianapolis; Leonard Ellis, Jr. of Hot Springs; and Robert Singleton, cousin of the bride.

A program of nuptial music by Mrs. George Brandon of Jonesboro, vocalist, and Luther Holloman, pianist, will precede the ceremony, and an informal reception in the Haynes' home will follow.

Miss Louise Polun of Crawfordsville, Indiana will assist in receiving the guests.

Miss Haynes, the daughter of Mrs. Charles A. Haynes and the late Mr. Hayne, pioneer Hope merchant, is descended from old families who settled in Arkansas before the state was admitted into the union.

She attended Miss Choate's School in Boston, and was graduated from Gunston Hall, Washington, D. C. last June.

Mr. Thompson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Macy G. Thompson of Indianapolis, attended Columbia Military Academy, Purdue, and the University of Michigan. He is with the Survey Division of the Architect-Engineer at the Southwestern Proving Ground.

Miss Crank, Mr. Browning Are Wed Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Crank of Emmet announce the marriage of their daughter, Norma Mae, to Dean Browning, son of Mrs. Mary Browning of Hope.

The single ring ceremony was solemnized at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at the home of the officiating minister, the Reverend James E. Hamill, pastor of the Hope Gospel Tabernacle.

The bride was becomingly attired in an R. A. F. blue velvet dress with ermine trim. The bride's flowers were of Sweetheart roses in a corsage.

Miss Hazel Abram was her only attendant. She wore a black crepe suit with a shoulder corsage of red radiance roses. Bernice Crank, brother of the bride, was best man.

The couple departed for a honeymoon trip to Galveston and other Texas points.

The couple will reside in Hope where the groom is employed by the Arkansas Machine Shop.

Manganese

Forest. Seven claims totaling approximately 120 acres were staked about two years ago, and assessment work to comply with mining laws since has been done.

The claims are the property of George A. Holt et al., of Hope. The development company formed to operate the property is composed of T. G. Rivers of Dallas, E. R. Needles of New York city, Ted Campbell of Kansas City, R. F. McCune of Dallas and Albert Graves and R. D. Franklin of Hope.

Engineers' estimates and analyses of the ores taken from the claims have indicated that manganese may be available in sufficient quantities to open up a new source of supply for southern steel mills, officials said. This, however, can be determined only by the detailed prospecting of the area.

Claim Miners

mines had shut down and that a stock of telegrams from other unions endorsed the move.

UMW claimed it had about 95 percent of the miners organized with nearly 100 percent in some mines.

The principal issue at stake was the union's demand for a union shop under which all miners must become union members.

WASHINGTON —(AP)—President Roosevelt Sunday night asked John L. Lewis to reconsider his decision and keep the captive coal mines in operation.

The president told Lewis he was asking that work continue in the interest of the safety and defense of the nation.

"In the crisis of our national life, there must be uninterrupted production of coal for making steel, that basic material of our national defense," the president wrote. "That is essential to the preservation of our freedoms, yours and mine; those freedoms upon which the very existence of the United Mine Workers of America depends."

Lewis has rejected an initial appeal by the president to extend that truce in the dispute over a union shop beyond Saturday midnight's strike deadline.

Lewis received the president's letter at 8:13 p. m., a member of his staff disclosed, adding that the United Mine Workers chief would have no comment on it Sunday night—none whatever.

Cabe Mill at Gurdon Burns

$40,000 Fire Sweeps Gurdon Lumber Co. Plant

GURDON — The saw mill at the Gurdon Lumber Co., burned at 3 a. m. Sunday. The origin of the fire was undetermined but it possibly was caused by welding done Saturday, officials said.

H. C. Cabe, president of the company, estimated the loss at $40,000, partially covered by insurance.

The wind blowing from the east saved the planing mill, dry kilns, dry sheds and lumber in the yards. Only the lumber in the immediate vicinity and a few logs in the supply on the skids were burned.

petent men must be placed in charge, trusted, and allowed to go a largely independent way.

Either the state-supported or the privately-supported college is subject to pressure, one political, the other financial. The Georgia incident, following so soon after the debauching of the Louisiana State University under Huey Long, is ample evidence that the United States has done well to support both kinds of colleges. The privately-supported institutions can usually resist political pressures; the state-supported are not subjected to the pressures which arise from constant need of endowments.

Both pressures must be fought in the interest of the independent search for truth which is the colleges' main function. The fact that Southern Colleges have unanimously condemned Talmadge's effort to dominate politically the great university of his state is proof that higher education is not going to be surrendered to politics without a fight.

College Class Picks Wallace VanSickle
